Membership Eligibility Criteria

A student is eligible for membership if he or she:

- Is an undergraduate Psychology major or minor
- Is at least a sophomore (by credit hours completed)
- Has been enrolled at Wayland for at least three semesters
- Has completed at least nine credit hours of psychology courses
- Has an average of a 3.0 GPA for all psychology courses taken
- Is in the top 35% of the class at the university
- Pays $75 to the local chapter for a lifetime membership

Student Membership Perks

- The $75 fee guarantees you a lifetime membership and connection with one of the most distinguished honor societies for psychologists.
- Access to online resources and Psi Chi's magazine, which provide specific guidance and tools about graduate school applications, career advancement, conducting research, promoting diversity, leadership and more.
- Attend the Annual Southwestern Psychological Association Meetings or the National Psi Chi Meetings. Meetings are held in a new location every year. Recent locations for the Southwest conferences include: Albuquerque, Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Wichita, Kansas City (MO) and Austin. Recent locations for the National conference include: Washington D.C., Chicago, San Francisco, Denver and Boston. Benefits to attending a conference include:
 - Presenting your research in poster or oral form
 - Competing for scholarships and grants
 - Networking with students/faculty from other universities
 - Learning from school representatives about psychology graduate programs
- Conduct a community service project
- Publish in Psi Chi's peer-reviewed journal, which accepts undergrad, graduate and faculty research in all areas of psychology.
- Take on a leadership role within the honor society to help plan induction ceremonies and community service projects for the group. This is the opportunity to learn leadership skills and make your resume more attractive to graduate programs.
